

Bancroft Canadian Tire robbed

Bancroft OPP are looking for two men following a robbery at Bancroft's Canadian Tire last night.

At 9 p.m. Dec. 16 two men took an undisclosed amount of money from the local business on Hastings Street North. Their faces were disguised. They fled on foot to a vehicle.

Bancroft OPP are investigating with the Crime Unit and Forensic Identification Unit.

No one was injured during the robbery.

The suspects were captured on video surveillance.

The first suspect was a man. He was described as black, in his early 20s, and approximately 6 feet 2 inches tall with a thin build. He was wearing a grey hoodie, grey track pants and black shoes with a red bandanna over his face.

The second suspect was also a man. He was described as indigenous, in his early 20s, approximately 5 feet 6 inches to 5 feet 8 inches tall and heavier set. He had a thin moustache, brown eyes, black hair, and high cheekbones. He was wearing a dark blue hoodie with a Toronto Maple Leafs emblem, and dark grey track pants with his face covered with a light coloured balaclava.
