

MP Bossio to hold monthly meetings in Bancroft

MP Mike Bossio, in blue, visits Faraday council. He is making regular trips to Bancroft.

In an effort to make sure he is available to the people of his riding, Hastings-Lennox and Addington MP Mike Bossio plans to hold regular office hours in a variety of locations across the riding. His main constituency office is in Napanee, which will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. during the week. However, he will also visit other locations on a regular basis.

On the second Tuesday of each month, the Bossio office will be open in Bancroft from noon to 4 p.m. at the township office. Every second month on a rotating schedule, Bossio's office will be available in Madoc, Tweed, Stirling, and Flinton. Bossio stated that moving around what is a large riding would give more people easier access to their federal government representative. Bossio's first office session in Bancroft will take place on Feb. 9.
